

The Amazing Kids of Forest Pines Young Entrepreneurs Raise $325 for the Civic Club

On a recent October Sunday, an air of excitement filled the corner of Verdome and Alabonson, as the dynamic duo, Evan and Eli Beebe, set out on a noble quest to acquire the coveted Nintendo Switch. With dreams of virtual adventures and gaming glory dancing in their heads, the brothers hatched a brilliant plan – selling their extraordinary homemade strawberry lemonade.

Passersby were greeted by the infectious energy of Evan and Eli, whose enthusiasm was as refreshing as their signature concoction.

The duo had set up shop with a simple goal – to not only fund their Nintendo Switch dreams but also to give back to their community. Amidst the lemonade-fueled festivities, the Beebe brothers accepted donations for the Civic Club, and their parents graciously matched the donations.

Evan (R) and Eli (L) deliver their $115 donation for the Civic Club.

Leah Honeycutt held her second fund raiser in early November by selling some very tasty pumpkin lattes. Many Forest Pines residents stopped by to support her efforts. Leah raised another $210 for the Civic Club. Thank you, Leah!

A big thank you to the parents, Judy and Greg Beebe, and Lisa Honeycutt, for raising such great kids!
